

Amazing Time Gone By
By Larry Latour, ©2000

The cold war was raging
Walls were standing high
We were so close
So close yet worlds apart

I can hear them
In my mind
In my mind
Of the time

Our mothers and fathers
Trying to get by Losing their children to the times

Amazing
Simply Amazing
Amazing time gone by

The war and the moon were closer than ever Woodstock
I didn't get there but I could have
We were young and we were innocent
Hair down to our shoulders
We touched the sky
With Martin and the Kennedys

Thirty odd years ago
Longer than I can remember
I can't remember but I try

So many things about me
But I was too young to notice
If I did it was a lie

Amazing
Simply Amazing
Amazing time gone by

Why were we so restless
What was it about the time
Maybe it was nothing more than we had it all and knew it Falling in love for the first time
For the first time in our lives

Musical invention
Hearing Janis, Jim, and Jimi
Playing the night away

What do we tell them
What do we say
About the amazing time gone by

It seems so sad
That they're all gone now
But Rock'nRoll is here to stay

Amazing
Simply amazing
Amazing time gone by

Their songs we carry with us
They live to mark the time
Songs of love and freedom
