

Bring My Love For You

By Larry Latour, ©2000

I saw a feather floating
So graceful on the wind Beauty in the moment
For nature to rescind
It falls to Earth so gently
But another rises too Through the passage of our lives
I bring my love for you

(chorus)

I bring
I bring my love for you
I bring
I bring my love for you
(It falls to Earth so gently
But another rises too
Through the passage of our lives)
I bring my love for you

The smell of rain upon the ground
Thunder in the sky
Beauty for an instant Doomed to pass us by A cloud above brings darkness
But a ray of light shines through Through the background of
our lives

I bring my love for you

(Chorus) I bring...

(A cloud above brings darkness
But a ray of light shines
through Through the background of
our lives)

I bring my love for you

A drop of rain is falling Finding its own way Flapping wings in Boston
Earthquakes in LA
Uncertainty surrounds us
Strange attractors they are few Through the chaos of our lives
I bring my love for you

(Chorus) I bring...

(Uncertainty surrounds us Strange attractors they are few Through the chaos of our lives)

I bring my love for you
