

Dont Want To Look Behind Me
Now

Leslie & Larry Latour, ©2006

Don't want to look behind me
Like reading last weeks mail
No reason to be digging up
On something that's gone stale

Don't want to look behind me
There's nowhere it can go
Like wandering off an old tote road
That disappears in snow

Don't want to turn around now
There's too much up ahead
No focus on what others thought
Or something someone said

Don't want to spend no precious time
To dwell on what's gone past
I'd rather give my time and place
To something that will last

(chorus)

Don't want to look behind now
There's nothing there but lies
The only reason I exist
Reflects now in your eyes

Just know that I am with you
Forever and a day too
Just want to be here
Here right now
That's the only way

Don't want to look behind me

So in our eyes today it is
It only matters how
Just gentle time to spend with you
It only matters now

Just know that I am with you
Forever and a day
Just want to be here
That's the only way

(chorus)
