

Mr. Baseball

Larry & Leslie Latour

Listen to my tragedy
This story I'll unfold
About poor man barred from the life he loves
And up the river sold

Now I've wandered this old world of mine
I've suffered toil and strife
'Cause when I bet on baseball
They sentenced me to life

(Chorus)

But I'm not just gonna take it

Not I'm not

I'm not just gonna take it

I'm not just gonna to take it

Cryin' in my beer

Gonna whine, cry

Until I die

(And piss and moan)

To everybody near

Oh let me in Mr. Baseball

Let me in

Oh let me in Mr. Baseball

I won't sin again

You know that Shoeless Joe bet his team would lose

I bet my team would win

Oh Let me in Mr. Baseball

Let me in

You know
Hockey game's is very fast
Basketball's the same
Football is so passionate
But baseball it's so lame
You wait and wait and wait and wait your turn
For a little piece of fame
You need something to do between the pitches

You know
Pitcher shakes off the catcher's sign
Shakes him off again
You find your mind a wanderin'
To what's hot in the Big Ten
You take Ohio State with 15 points
Now that's a game for men
Oh it hurts so bad
You know it itches

(Chorus)

You know
Everybody loves me
Everybody does
Everybody wants me back
I'm the best there ever was
You know the people they all say so
You don't believe it
Yes they do
I'll bet you 10-1
Put your money where your mouth is

(Chorus)
