

Once Upon A Shooting Star

Once I saw a shooting star I made little wish on that star so far you know what?
You came true
Just thinking of you
and You came true

There's a breeze, and a birdsong, and the leaves falling.
and the sun shining through the trees.
and you know what?
They make me think of you
Just thinking of you
and You came true

(chorus)
just a hint of your smile.
brings me to that gentle place
I'd walk me a mile
For that smile on your face

I couldn't resist thinking of you you you cause you came true
you came true
cause I was thinking of you

So I'm hoping your day is Filled with beautiful things
And lovely moments and wedding rings
cause you know what?
I'm in love with you

I'm trusting that your night is filled with bright stars and pleasant dreams
and moonbeams
To treasure always
and you know what?
I'll be thinking of you

Just thinking of you
And you came true
Just thinking of you

harmonica solo

(chorus)

just a wisp of your smile.
The scent of your hair
the sound of your laughter and the touch of your hand and boy, am I glad You the best that I had If someone try to steal you I'll get pretty darn mad

(Verse 1 – Once Upon a Shooting Star)

...Just thinking of you
and You came true
...Just thinking of you
and You came true
